MATRIMONIAL.

Robert A. McKay and Miss Florence Arnold were married at Perryville Wednesday.

John White, aged 70, and Mrs. Annie Hall, 71, eloped from Greenup to the World's Fair and were married.

A surprise in social circles was caused here when it was learned that Dr. W. D. Powell, of this place, and Miss Virginia Wise, of Leesburg, Va., would be married next Saturday, says a Harrodsburg dispatch. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride in Leesburg.

Mr. Ernest Reichenbach, of Kalispell, Montana, and Mrs. Lucy Nobley, of the Mt. Salem section, were joined in wedlock by holy bonds by Rev. J. W. Hagan, at that gentleman's home Tuesday afternoon. They were sweethearts before Mrs. Nobley was married but their love affair was broken into by his removal West. Mrs. Nobley, then Miss Coffey, met Mr. Terry Nobley and after a courtship of some time married him. He died some 18 months ago and a few months since a correspondence between Mrs. Nobley and Mr. Reichenbach began. The old love was quickly kindled and on his arrival from his Western home here Tuesday he was married to his sweetheart of years ago. The bride is a strikingly handsome young woman of 23 years and her heart and hand have been sought by numerous beaux. The groom is a fine business man of good morals and has shown his good judgment in the choosing of his helpmeet.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Hyomel Only Guaranteed Cure for This Common and Disagreeable Disease.

Hyomel cures catarrh by the simple method of breathing it into the air passages and lungs. It kills the germs of catarrhal poison, heals and soothes the irritated mucous membrane and effectively drives this disease from the system.

If you have any of the following symptoms, catarrhal germs are at work somewhere in the mucous membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes or tissues of the lungs.

Offensive breath, dryness of the nose, pain across the eyes, pain in back of the head, pain in front of the head, tendency to take cold, burning pain in the throat, hawking to clear the throat, pain in the chest, a cough, stitch in side, loss of flesh, variable appetite, low spirited at times, raising of frothy mucus, expectorating yellow matter, difficulty in breathing, frequent sneezing, huskiness of voice, discharge from the nose, stoppage of the nose at night, aching of the body, droppings in the throat, mouth open while sleeping, tickling back of the palate, formation of crusts in the nose, dryness of the throat in the morning, loss of strength, spasms of coughing, cough short and hacking, cough worse nights and mornings, loss in vital force, a feeling of tightness across the upper part of the chest.

Hyomel will destroy activity of all catarrhal germs in the respiratory organs and in a few weeks the cure will be complete.

This is a strong statement, but Penny emphasizes it by agreeing to refund your money if Hyomel does not cure.

Madam Humor predicts another wed-ding.

Vernon, have been guests of Miss Flonnie Hammond. L. G. Hubbank has returned from St. Louis. Mrs. Lou Robson, of Sieuberville, is with her mother, Mrs. Nancy Sloan. Mr. Sidney Dunbar is visiting his father in Russell county.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hammett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. O. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." Following Walter R. Day's departure from Kentucky two suits containing serious charges have been filed. R. Day, who was State treasurer under the brief Taylor Administration in Kentucky.

Only Did His Duty as He Saw It.

"I deem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Park, the well-known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me they would not do without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge, one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you please." Sold by all Druggists.

The greatest sovereign that ever adorned the English throne, Queen Elizabeth, with her dying breath exclaimed: "My whole kingdom for one minute more of life!" But cruel death was inexorable and the heart breaking request of Royalty was not granted. I knew a friend worth half a million to cry aloud to be spared, to be good to the poor by helping them with his means, but alas, the sands of the hour-glass had all run out.

Farewell dear sister, farewell for awhile. Though we shall soon meet again ill kind Providence smiles. You will live forever in affection's soundless well.

We bear much complaint of depredations committed by some of the light fingered gentry. If all complaints are well founded it is evident that somebody is feasting on the fat of the land and living like unto a king.

A sum approximating $50,000,000 is sent from the United States in small sums each year to assist those left behind in the Old World, or to enable them to emigrate. DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
ALTON BROOKS PARKER,
of New York.
For Vice President,
HENRY G. DAVIS,
of West Virginia.
For Judge Fifth Appellate District,
JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRILL, of Georgetown.

SECRETARY UREY WOODSON, of the Democratic National Committee, has received a letter from Hon. Wm. Jennings Bryan in which the latter says he will be at the disposal of the democratic committee for campaign purposes during the month of October. Mr. Bryan indicates that he would prefer speaking in the West, mostly in Indiana. Chairman Taggart says that the committee has not yet taken up the subject of Mr. Bryan's itinerary, and it is not known whether he will speak in the Eastern States, although there have been several requests from different localities that if Mr. Bryan enters the campaign he should make one or two speeches in Connecticut and New York.

We are glad to state that the democrats of Lincoln county are perfecting an organization for this fall's campaign against the common enemy, the republican party. With Mr. W. S. Burch, a tireless worker for his party, at the head of the campaign committee and no dissenters in democratic ranks, the majority for the ticket under the rooster should be way up in the hundreds. Let every democrat consider it his duty to make old Lincoln go as strongly democratic this year as it is possible. It behoves the party to carry the county by a decided majority.

CHAIRMAN BARBOCK, of the republican Congressional committee, says: "As the situation stands to-day the indications are that the republicans will elect the president and lose the House." Along about Nov. 8th he will have to admit that the president also got lost in the shake up.

It is observed that the Sherman silver purchase bill is omitted from the list of important measures passed by the republican party as contained in the campaign book issued by Chairman Cortelyou. The reason for the omission needs no explanation.

NOW is the time for all good democrats to get together, give aid and succor to the campaign managers and work for a great big majority. It is not the majority that is so much in doubt as the question how much?

THE right to buy American made goods as cheaply as the foreigner can buy them is a right and a privilege that is worth voting for. Vote for Parker and Davis and you will get it.

THAT some republicans can not live without office is shown in the fact that Leander Robinson, for 13 years treasurer of Madison, Ind., succeeded the day he was defeated for re-election.

Democratic primary elections for State and county officers and members of Congress were held throughout South Carolina. The State ticket headed by D. C. Heyward, for governor, was nominated without opposition.

Only three men are mentioned for the Republican nomination for Governor of New York. They are Timothy Woodruff, Lieut. Gov. Higginson and Nicholas Murray Butler. Of these three Mr. Woodruff is the most active candidate.

CHARLEY MONTGOMERY is one of Casey county's most enterprising sons. He is a young lawyer of note, a hustler in business, is secretary of the fair association and his face is a familiar one in democratic conventions. He is a great admirer and friend of Hon. Geo. Stone and was one of the happiest men in the Somerset convention over Stone's nomination and acceptance—Somerset Journal.

ONE KILLED, ANOTHER CRIPPLED.—While digging a well near Eubanks, George Padgett met with an accident from which he died four hours later and J. Wheedon had a leg broken. They were down some 40 feet in the well when a cave-in occurred and besides being otherwise hurt, Mr. Padgett's back was broken. After much hard work they were gotten out but the shock and injuries were too great for Mr. Padgett, who was 55 years old. Besides the broken limb, Mr. Wheedon's injuries are small.

A CORRECTION.—Allow me to say it was Marshal Wells and not Major Wells, as stated in last Friday's issue, who lost his life at Junction City while attempting to arrest discontents over payment for liquor. A. W. Carpenter.

WANTED.—To buy a small farm three or four miles from Stanford. Also to sell 65 acres good bottom land two miles south of Kingsville and 1½ miles N. E. of Waynesburg. In high state of cultivation. Price $700. M. G. Murphy, Kingsville, Ky.

MISS SALLIE ELKIN wished to meet her former art pupils and any others who may be interested in China decoration in parlor at Myers House on Wednesday afternoon Sept. 7th. She desires at that time to perfect arrangements for her Fall work in this place.

THE furniture and farming implements at the sale of Alex Taylor, deceased, brought good prices. Wheat sold at $2.00, two-year-old steers $27 to $30, hollers $22.00, cows $16 to $25, sheep $1.35, sheets $3.50 apiece, horses $140 to $600, work mules $60 to $90, corn $1.50 at heap, hay $12 a stack.

I DESIRE to thank the good people of Stanford and vicinity for the liberal patronage they have given and I cordially ask a continuance of it. I also desire to say that while coal has advanced in price and the other dealers are charging more I will continue for the next 30 days to sell orders at the same old prices. Thanking my patrons once more, I am, very truly, E. B. Deham.

ABOUT 10 weeks have past since we dissolved partnership. Some of our customers responded very readily to our request for settlement and others are still behind. We think with the prevailing prices on wheat, oats, corn, &c., you could settle your account, so we will be prompt attention to this, as a settlement of our partnership is necessary to each of us in our business.

In a personal letter from Mr. J. E. Carson, formerly of Crab Orchard, but now a big ranchman with headquarters at Bliss, O. T., he says: "We are having lots of rain: too much for the wheat threshing. I have been threshing since the 1st day of July, every day that we could get dry enough and still have 300 acres to thresh. Wheat is damaged to a great extent but the price goes up, so we do not lose very much. We had a splendid crop. Have a very heavy corn crop—mine has been estimated as high as bushels per acre. I still like Oklahoma and suppose I am here to stay. I will try and write you something for publication some time if you think it would be of interest to your patrons. Say, I don't like poker and am glad we have no vote. My kindest regards to all my friends." We are sorry our old friend does not like democracy's splendid standard bearer but we'll wager if he had 1,000 votes they would all go under the rooster.

STEPHENS.—Mrs. Annie Stephen, widow of Mr. J. T. Stephens, died near Mt. Vernon Wednesday of consumption of the bowels and was buried at Mt. Vernon yesterday afternoon. She was 50 years old and was a most excellent woman.

FARMERS.—Stock your coal while the roads are good. J. H. Baughman & Co.

At a big discount, a number of high grade 17 jewel movements (16 size) at W. H. Mueller's.

WANTED.—White cook. At the Joseph Price Hospital. Single woman. Good pay.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL, Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption.
It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui.
I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Sergia Dunbar

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well! You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist to day?
